STATES

- The Karnataka government – has initiated steps to preserve the Kolar leaf-nosed bats, which were found only in two caves in the villages of Kolar district

- ✓ The bat recently became extinct in one of the caves
- ✓ The Kolar leaf nosed-bats have been listed under 'Critically Endangered' under IUCN list of threatened species.
- ✓ The habitats of leaf-nosed bats are under threat due to the setting of fires by the granite miners in Kolar district.
- ✓ Earlier, the Centre imposed a temporary ban on granite mining in the region to save the bats in 2014.
- ✓ The leaf nosed-bat is not protected under Indian Wildlife Protection Act, 1972

NATIONAL

- The government - has ordered a probe against e-commerce players Amazon and Flipkart for alleged violation of foreign direct investment (FDI) norms
- ✓ The move follows a review of the complaints by a three member committee of officers from the commerce and industry ministry.
- ✓ The panel had discussed complaints related to Amazon's acquisition of stake in Kishore Biyani's Future Group outfit and also More retail chain, which was earlier owned by the AV Birla Group.
- ✓ The ministry has asked the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) and Enforcement Directorate (ED), which is the agency tasked with looking into charges of FEMA violation, to investigate the issue.
- ✓ The FDI rules do not allow the entry of overseas retailers into the country in the multi-brand segment or ecommerce.
- ✓ As a result, Amazon and Flipkart, which is now majority controlled by Walmart, are operating what they call are 'marketplaces'.
- The Centre – had asked the states and UTs to conduct a nation-wide dry run for the Covid-19 vaccination on January 2
- ✓ The activity is proposed to be conducted in all state capitals in at least three session sites.

- ✓ Around 96,000 vaccinators have been trained for the Covid-19 vaccination programme that will be rolled out in January once a vaccine is approved.
 - ✓ State governments, district officials and municipal commissioners have been asked to get ground staff, logistics and IT systems in place for the exercise
 - ✓ The vaccination drive aims to cover 30 crore 'priority population' by July 2021.
 - ✓ Maharashtra and Kerala are likely to schedule the dry run in major cities other than their capital cities.
 - ✓ For the dry runs, the medical officer in-charge of each session at site will have to identify 25 beneficiaries (healthcare workers).
 - ✓ States have been asked to ensure that data of these beneficiaries is uploaded in Co-WIN, which is the IT platform developed by the Centre to implement the vaccination drive.
 - ✓ These beneficiaries will also be available at the session site for the dry run.
 - ✓ The dry runs will also include physical verification of all proposed sites for adequacy of space, logistical arrangements, internet connectivity, electricity, safety etc.
 - ✓ The dry runs are also aimed at equipping the administrations at the state level to manage vaccine supply, storage and logistics including cold chain management.
 - ✓ The drug regulator's subject expert committee on Covid vaccine is scheduled to meet on January 1 to consider emergency use authorisation for Serum Institute of India's Covishield and Bharat Biotech's Covaxin.
 - ✓ Both the companies have submitted updated data to the regulator, which are currently under evaluation.
 - ✓ Once the SEC recommends the emergency use, the Drugs Controller General of India (DCGI) will take a final decision on the approval.

- ✓ The position of Chairman in JCI is equivalent to the status of a cabinet minister
- ✓ The JCI was formed in 1971 with the sole purpose of helping farmers get the MSP for their produce.
- ✓ Headquartered in Kolkata, JCI has played a key role in jute cultivation in nearly 17 districts of Bengal.
- ✓ At present, JCI is in a transformation phase
- ✓ JCI has already introduced geo-mapping of jute growing areas with the assistance of ISRO.
- ✓ It has also introduced an e-passbook for farmers to eliminate middlemen.

OBITUARY

- Colonel Narendra ‘Bull’ Kumar (Retd.) (87 years) - died due to age-related illness at the Army’s Research & Referral Hospital in Delhi on December 31.

- ✓ Colonel Kumar, the soldier-mountaineer, was instrumental in the Army launching Operation Meghdoot and securing Siachen Glacier for India in 1984
- ✓ Born in Rawalpindi in 1933, Col. Kumar was drawn towards his life-long obsession towards mountains when he met Tenzing Norgay in Darjeeling.
- ✓ He lost his toes to frostbite during his first expedition in Ladakh in 1961.
- ✓ He became the first Indian to scale the Nanda Devi in 1964.
- ✓ A year after that, he was deputy leader of the first Indian expedition to scale Everest.
- ✓ In 1977, he climbed Kanchenjunga from its northeastern spur, the toughest.
- ✓ But most significant of all was his series of expeditions in the Siachen.
- ✓ The Karachi Agreement of 1949, signed by India and Pakistan after a UN-mediated ceasefire, had not clearly demarcated authority over parts of Siachen because they were too remote.
- ✓ Starting in 1978, Col. Kumar led a recce across seven mountain ranges — Pir Panjal, Himalayas, Zaskar, Ladakh, Saltoro, Karakoram and Agil — and came back with evidence that Pakistan was planning to occupy Siachen glacier.
- ✓ Pakistan had planned an operation to conquer Siachen in May 1984 but India preempted the attack.
- ✓ On April 13, 1984, India launched Operation Meghdoot and got control over the 76.4-km glacier on the Saltoro ridge.
- ✓ Col. Kumar was serving as Commandant of the “High Altitude Warfare School (HAWS)” during that period
- ✓ A platoon of the 4 Kumaon led by then Captain Sanjay Kulkarni planted the Indian flag at Bilafond La.
- ✓ Col. Kumar was awarded Padma Shri in 1965.
- ✓ For his valour, he was decorated with the Arjuna Award, the Param Vishisht Seva Medal in all three services (the only Colonel so far), the Kirti Chakra and the Ati Vishisht Seva Medal
- ✓ He is a recipient of the Mac Gregor Medal awarded to armed forces personnel for military reconnaissance.
- ✓ The battalion headquarters on the glacier close to an altitude of 16,000 feet is named “Kumar post” in his honour.
- ✓ Col. Kumar served Kumaon Regiment for 34 years
